

Atlanta Computer Repair Center Inc. reserves the right to reject the service to any one at any time depending on the circumstances. You are required to let our technicians know of any damage (internal or external), if you fail to do so "Atlanta Computer Repair Center" and our technicians will not be responsible.

On all computer repairs, computer upgrades and troubleshooting, we only warranty the original "service" that was performed for the period of 3 days which does not include any software issues created and/or caused by "end user", virus, spyware, tempering with the settings etc. If additional problems are discovered, additional fees may apply.

We absolutely do not cover any misuse, tempering, abuse, fire, theft, accidental damage, surges, spikes, brown outs, software issues created by end user, virus, spyware etc. This applies to all our services.

Atlanta Computer Repair Center Inc. will make every reasonable effort to protect your data. However, it is possible that data can be lost due to factors beyond our control. You, the customer, are responsible for backing up your data to removable media. Atlanta Computer Repair Center will not be held responsible in any way for lost or corrupt data, or any loss of revenue or income resulting from such loss. The customer understands that ALL DATA WILL BE LOST if we have to format / restage your hard drive, including any applications that are not included with your version of Windows, that you do not have legal CD's for. You also understand that during the course of any service or data backup, data (personal files) can become corrupt or unusable; in such case you will not hold Atlanta Computer Repair Center responsible.

Atlanta Computer Repair Center will only offer limited liability in case of unforeseen consequences that are beyond our control. If your computer problem recurs subsequent to a service call, or another problem occurs, this will be considered a separate issue, and if a service call is requested, you will be charged our regular rate. Hardware warranty is via original manufacturers only unless otherwise specified in the contract.

Data backup, ghosting, drive imaging, drive copying, data transfer depends on the condition of your disk and data integrity. Corruption and data loss is possible. (Charges may apply.)

You will void your warranty if you or any unauthorized person adds or removes any device from the computer. Removes our cables, change any settings in the network, changes or installs programs that could jeopardize the integrity of the operating system.

Atlanta Computer Repair Center Inc. will perform any work without your consent, if our technicians find anything else wrong with your system besides what you mentioned, you will be notified with a new estimate. If you agree work will be done and you can pay the balance upon pickup / repair completion. If you not consent to the repairs, you will be charged the appropriate fees as listed on our site.
